Income Tax Rates

When you receive your matching share after the conclusion of the vesting period, this will be deemed a taxable benefit. Income tax will apply to your matching share at progressive tax rates through your tax return.

Tax rates are progressive. The maximum tax rate applies to annual taxable income over SGD1,000,000. The max rate is 24%.

Capital Gains Tax

No capital gains tax is due on any capital gains, provided shares are held for long-term investment purposes and not for trading purposes. No social security is applicable. Gains made from the disposal of shares may be subject to income tax if the shares are held for trading purposes.

Individual Tax Reporting

How to report the income via tax return?

Any share related income, such as the matching shares, needs to be included in your annual tax return. There is no specific filing in relation to equity related incentives. The return is called the Annual Tax Return to the Inland Revenue Authority of Singapore (IRAS) (Form B1 and appendices). Most taxpayers file their tax return online through IRAS's e-services portal.

What's the reporting deadline?

Reporting deadline: The filing deadline is 15 April of the following year. (18 April if filed electronically).

How will the taxes be paid?

Payment of tax: any income tax is due within one month after service of the Notice of Assessment issued by IRAS.
